A PEOPLE'S PAPER.

Numerous publications are claiming to be the only people's papers. What is a people's paper?

A paper published in the interests of the public and for the people.

A people's paper deals frankly, fairly and directly with its readers. It does not deal indirectly or unfairly with the disinterested public.

It can be a people's paper without being a People's party paper. In fact as soon as it is a People's party, or any other party paper, in the sense of being the organ of the party, it ceases to be a people's paper.

WANTED, HONEST DEMOCRATS.

That is what the Cleveland administration evidently intends to give the country when it appoints any Democrats from Oregon. At least the president has acted along that line so far in refusing to give a snail to any of the hungry and thirsty at Salem.

The president would never recognize a single one of them if he knew how slow they are about paying their actual campaign bills.

Most of this crowd have heretofore been the Penneyer shouters. Now that they have found out that Cleveland has more to give them than the governor they abuse the governor and fawn upon the president.

They should mark the fate of a prominent Portland office seeker who got left behind he did not pay his bills and profit by it.

THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

St. Louis Republic special. Western and Southern Democrats in Washington are overjoyed because of the president and secretary of the treasury having decided to recommend the income tax when congress convenes. Many of the Eastern Democrats, too, are in favor of this mode of taxation, although there is no doubt that the prevailing sentiment of the Eastern men of all parties is against an income tax.

The president and secretary of the treasury, however, became convinced that in order to reform the tariff and keep the revenues up to the needs of the government it would be necessary either to pass an income tax or restore the duty on sugar, and perhaps on coffee and tea. Every Western Democrat with whom the president conversed gave notice that the reimposition of the sugar duty would not be accepted by the West, on the contrary would be resisted to the bitter end. The president was further informed that a tax on the breakfast table would not be popular anywhere in the country, and more particularly in the West.

The president has made a very careful study of the question. He has read the debates in the English House of Commons on the income tax proposition and has discussed the subject with some of the ablest economists in the country. There is no doubt that Secretary Carlisle's influence with him is very great and in this matter that he had the benefit of the earnest advice of the secretary in favor of the imposition of an income tax. The belief here is that incomes of not more than $5000 a year will escape the tax, although there are several members of congress in favor of putting the limit at $2000.

As stated, however, this is a matter that congress will have to settle. The president is committed to the general theory, and will recommend it in his message to congress, but in all likelihood he will make no suggestions regarding the details, but will leave that to congress to work out in its own way.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Celebrate!
Why not celebrate?

Time seems to be the essence of an electric lighting contract.

A church without a quarrel would not be in it nowadays.

That advertising for the city hall received its first overhauling last night.

Mrs. Florence had an undeserved small audience last night to hear her in "The Almighty Dollar." It seems to have been a strangely unfamiliar subject.

The Salem Water Co. proposes to have sufficient suction. They are not Prohib.

In regard to life insurance, for about nine solidifications out of ten, our advice is, "don't!"

The moral effect of closing the world's fair Sundays will be good on those who cannot get to Chicago.

Judge Burnett upholds the constitution in his granting an injunction in the Soldiers' Home case.

Nature has got ahead of the Grand Army. She has already decorated the graves with wild flowers.

The Albany Democrat pretty forcefully does up "Salem" whoever that may be, on the Soldiers' Home question.

All the Salem contractors who can do the job should have a chance at the city hall building. Not just one or two pets.

Closing the world's fair Sundays, no Sunday newspapers, next some one will get so religious as to want to close the churches on Sunday.

The Statesman correspondent "Salem" can manage his pen very well, if he can't manage the whole Soldiers' Home squabble. The Albany Democrat, which as a rule treats Salem very well, has this: "It is true that the local editor of the Democrat has frequently written squibs about the audacity of Salem's claims as represented by the Salem press, but these were always called out as a defense against the attacks made by a Salem paper against Albany. A few Salem men pursuing the course of this correspondent, have made more enemies for that city than all other forces combined. Not long since the editor of the Democrat wrote an article in which we explicitly stated that under the constitution of the state there was but one place to locate the Soldiers' Home, and that was Salem. Does that look much like attempting to foment jealousy against Salem? We have nothing but the kindest feelings for Salem and are proud of her progress, but we have not the kindest feelings for such of her fool friends as "Salem" shows himself to be.

A Wise Young Woman.

Young Adolphus Fitzwilliam, he loved a fair maid. But to ask her to marry him, he was afraid. Because of catarrh, which she had very bad; so much so that often the youth was quite glad. To omit, at the parting, the kiss of the lover. The reason of this she set out to discover. "Catarrh makes me loathsome. It is fatal to love." O, darling Adolphus, by all that's above, I'll not lose thee! If it something there is to drive out catarrh, and sweeten a kiss. So this wise young woman began searching for a cure, and good luck attended her. She found Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy at the drug store, and felt convinced that a preparation which the proprietors had such confidence in that they were willing to offer to pay $500 for a case they cannot cure, must be worth trying. She bought it. She tried it. It cured her. And when Adolphus kissed her at the altar last week, her kiss was as sweet and pure as roses in June. Girls, a word of advice: If you want a lover to stay a lover, get rid of catarrh. Do as this sensible girl did, and get the only sure remedy for this disgusting and dangerous disease—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Check the First Approach
Of rheumatism, and further attacks may be escaped, if proper precautions against exposure are taken, and there be no hereditary predisposition. Unfortunately, people who ultimately become chronic sufferers, too often neglect the trifling twinges and premonitory stiffness which herald the advent of this agonizing malady. Among the diseases for which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been found perfectly safe, it is certainly to be preferred to drugs used for its cure, which are frequently useless, and nothing more than less poisonous. The substitution of this pleasant and pure blood purifier for medicines harmful to life in a slight overdose, is a measure which may truly be urged upon persons who desire to obtain relief safely, or who have failed to obtain it from the numerous pseudo remedies for this disease in the market.

GET WELL

"I have had for years a humor in my blood, which made me dread to shave, as small boils or pimples would be out, thus causing the shaving to be a great annoyance. Afterthoughts.
Mrs. Blank. That dog has got into the flower beds again and torn everything to pieces. I declare, it's too bad!

Mr. Blank—Oh, well, Fido doesn't know any better.

Mrs. Blank—That's all the sympathy I ever got from you. You always take Fido's part, and you know well enough when I asked you to buy him you said yourself that he'd be an awful nuisance, and you held out a long time before you'd let me have him. But of course you forget all about that now.—Boston Transcript.

Women Who Possess Dazzling Diamonds.
Mrs. Frederick Vanderbilt's necklace of diamonds ranks with a few of the very highest value in town. Mrs. Henry Clews has superb jewels, while Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan has as magnificent diamonds as any one and perhaps even finer. She has strings and strings of them for necklaces, and every stone is of enormous size.—New York Recorder.

One of Gresham's Jokes.

This story about Walter G. Gresham is told by an old Indian. Sitting in his office one day were Senator Voorhees, W. W. Dudley and some other friends. They were discussing politics, when Judge Gresham arose and said: "Suppose we go down and have a drink. You'll go, won't you, Dan?"

Mr. Voorhees signified his assent. So did the others in their turn until Mr. Dudley was reached. He declined. "I never drink," he said.

"Well, come down and have a cigar," said Judge Gresham.

"Thank you, I never smoke," said General Dudley.

"Well, Dudley," said Judge Gresham, "you have all the qualities that go to make a bad man."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Don't You Know that you can secure almost immediate relief from Indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with Indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the Liver that causes Indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from these troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. B. Wharton, Baltimore, Md.
"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. No good a medicine deserves universal commendation."
